

BLACK NEW ENGLAND CONFERENCE

June 23- 24, 2006

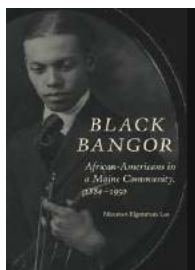

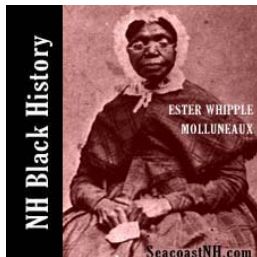

Black New England: Life, History and Community in Maine, New Hampshire & Vermont

A 2-day conference that will gather scholars, teachers, researchers, community members and members of local organizations to share their work and insights on the Black experience past and present in northern New England.

FRIDAY, JUNE 23/ 1- 5 PM

New Research on Black New England

7 PM KEYNOTE ADDRESS:
PROFESSOR JAMES O. HORTON

SATURDAY, JUNE 24/ 8 - 5:30 PM

Panel Discussions
Projects & Conversations
Book Fair
Strawbery Banke Museum Tour

PANELISTS INCLUDE

DR. JAMES HORTON, DR. LOIS HORTON
LOCAL COMMUNITY LEADERS AND SCHOLARS

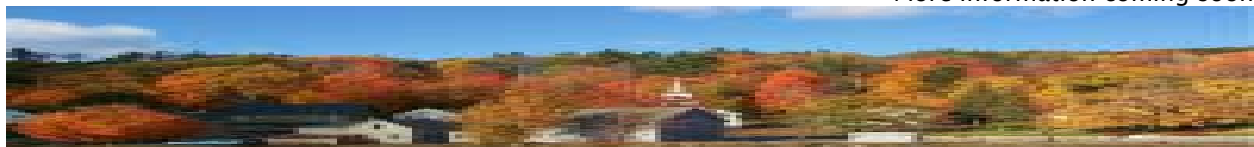

PANEL DISCUSSIONS

- The Black Presence in 19th-Century Northern New England
- Black Family History & Genealogy
- Civil Rights & Immigration
- Black History in New England Museums, Historical Societies & Communities

Contact: jerriane.boggis@unh.edu or david.watters@unh.edu

Phone: 603-862-0353

More information coming soon

Conference is cosponsored by The Office of Black Heritage Partnerships at the University of New Hampshire, The African American Collection of Maine at the University of Southern Maine, The Portsmouth Black Heritage Trail and the Harriet Wilson Project.