

Center for New England Culture
And
The Tomaquag Indian Memorial Museum

Third Annual Teacher Institute

Two day Institute for K-12 teachers and librarians addressing different topics in Native American curriculum.

- Institute held at the Tomaquag Museum
- Monday, July 11th and Tuesday, July 12th from 9am to 4pm
- Fee is $ 75 per person
- CEUs are available.

Institute topics include:

- How to teach about Columbus from a Native perspective.
- Narragansett Tribal History and culture, past, present, & future
- Thanksgiving from a Native perspective
- Colonization from Native perspective
- How to evaluate books about Native Americans
- Native Authors
- Stereotypes and Bias
- Native Curriculum development
- Teacher resources

Meet the Presenters:

Naomi Caldwell Ph.D.: URI Assistant Professor, Library, Media, & Native resources

Paulla Dove Jennings: Tribal historian, Storyteller, Author, Museum consultant

Loren Spears MsEd.: Executive Director Tomaquag Museum & Nuweetoun School

The seminar will conclude with the development of Native American lesson plans. Each seminar will run from 9-4 and will include coffee, tea, and snacks. Please bring a bag lunch. Luncheon in air conditioned conference room or at picnic tables outside. Limited tuition assistance is available; please inquire.

Directions to Tomaquag Museum at www.tomaquagmuseum.com
timm@tomaquagmuseum.com
390 Summit Rd. Exeter, RI 02822
401-491-9063

For information about the Center for New England Culture, contact:

Center for New England Culture
David H. Watters, Director
Huddleston Hall 304
73 Main St.
University of New Hampshire
Durham, NH 03824
603-862-0353 603-862-0110 fax
david.watters@unh.edu
www.neculture.org

Registration

Name:

Address:

School and grade:

Phone:

email:

dietary restrictions: